

Profit Beginners Skill Sheet

Report Rebranding

Thank you for investing in rebranding rights for our Profit Beginners Skill Sheet report. We think you've made a wise decision.

You will be doing your followers a favor by helping them acquire the very valuable skills in building an email list and earning from it. You could also earn commissions from sales made to people who receive the report and click on the links inside, that will be branded with your own affiliate link.

You can also earn from people who purchase the report directly from you.

The more widely you distribute this report, the better.

Remember, the only restrictions that we placed on your use of the report itself is that you cannot modify it (you can only rebrand it with your own affiliate links, which we'll explain below).

In order to successfully rebrand and distribute this report, you just have to do a couple things first.

Step 1: You need to sign up for the DAB (Dennis Becker and Barb Ling) affiliate system on Nanacast, if you haven't already.

So do that here:

<http://dabcoaching.com/join-dab-ibu-affiliate-program/>

If you're not already an affiliate for any Nanacast merchants, you'll be assigned an affiliate ID (which is a numeric value). It will be sent to you in an email. The email address you use should be the same as your PayPal account.

Keep track of that affiliate ID because you'll need it in the next step.

Step 2: Go here:

<http://dabcoaching.com/rebrand-the-profit-beginners-report/>

This is where you'll create your rebrandable report.

Enter your Nanacast affiliate ID which you just received into the first box. To the left of that box is a link to join the Nanacast affiliate program, but you've already done that in step 1, so don't worry about it if you did.

Then you can optionally enter your email address if you want, if you want the system to send you an email with the rebranding information.

Then click on the Rebrand It button.

If all went as expected, you should see something like this:

Rebrand This Report And Give It Out, It Will Contain Your Own Affiliate ID For Possible Future Commissions.

Note: Once you have rebranded the reports, you'll be given links so that you can either download your rebranded PDF, or you also have the option of just sending people to a link on our server. In either case, the links will be branded with your affiliate ID.

If you decide to send people to the link on our server, the benefit will be that if we update the report, your version will automagically be updated as well.

Also, we are now hosting your report on our servers for you. You can send people directly to the following link to send them YOUR rebranded copy of the report filled with YOUR ids.

Finally, share your rebranded PDF with the world by using the social media tools below.

Powered By Easy Viral PDF Brander

So, you can either download the rebranded report to your computer, and upload it to your server to resell it or give it out, or you can use the 2nd option on that page and just give out the link which is on our server.

The advantage of the 2nd option is that if we do update the report in the future, your version of the report on our server will automatically be updated also, and you won't have to worry about it.

You can share the PDF on social media if you desire.

That's it. If you have any questions, let one of us know.

And if you think our rebrander is pretty nifty, you can purchase the software here:

Keep in mind, anyone who either joins DAB Coaching by clicking on links inside the report, or purchases the rebranding software, will earn you an affiliate commission. We pay commissions on the 1st of the month for all sales made the prior month, unless you've accumulated over $150 in commissions by Thursday of any week, in which case we pay accumulated commissions on Friday.
